PREFACE

I first learned of my Fourth Great Grandfather James Keith, Sr. ten years ago while gathering information for the nine family histories contained in Blue Ridge Mountain Kinfolks. Plans were made then to collect material and publish fundamental knowledge found on him and all possible of his descendants. A great many of these descendants have been discovered, identified by tracing their ancestry back to James Keith, Sr. and vital facts and other data obtained on them. This information is arranged and presented here in order of generations and births in generations. Regretfully many other James Keith, Sr. descendants were not found or identified, therefore can not be a part of this Record.

Keith Kinfolks has three primary purposes. First; to honor my Keith ancestors by gathering, preserving and perpetuating in book form the knowledge acquired on James Keith, Sr. and his descendants. Second; to make this knowledge available to interested parties now living and those to come in future generations. And third; to furnish Keith descendants a means for tracing and learning about their ancestors, knowing their kinfolks and establishing their relation to each other. Although intended for contemporaries as well, the Record has been compiled mainly with coming Keith generations in mind. It is my sincere desire that they, my living Keith descendant relatives and other readers will find the Book of value, enlightening and interesting.

Writing the Book has been a very fascinating, extremely challenging, highly rewarding and most enjoyable experience. With much pride and a great pleasure it is now available to Keith descendants, libraries, genealogy hobbyist, researchers, genealogical and historical societies and anyone else interested in works of this nature. My wish is that present and future generations of Keith descendants and others will refer to the Book often. Hopefully they will use it as a starting point for compiling and publishing additional Keith genealogies going farther back in time and having improved and expanded content with updated material to include Keith descendants of their period in time. And possibly some features of the Work will be accepted by writers and serve as guides for them in compiling their works.

SOURCES OF AND METHODS USED TO GATHER INFORMATION

The James Keith, Sr. Family has been and presently is blessed with amateur genealogists and many members interested in their ancestors and relatives. Some have written genealogies, many have maintained and preserved Bible and other family records, and a great number have completed family group sheets on their families and the families of their ancestors, children and other relatives. Six of these genealogies (three quite detailed), many Bible and miscellaneous family records and about 800 Keith Family group sheets were available for use in compiling this Work.

During research the addresses of many James Keith, Sr. descendants were learned. Over 4,000 were sent family history questionnaires to complete on their families; on families of their ancestors and children; and occasionally on families of other close relatives. In addition to the data asked for, the questionnaire requested birth, death, marriage, Bible, church, military, census, land, court, cemetery and school records; newspaper and magazine items; old letters; diaries; personal memoirs; other source documents, papers and photographs. The response was completely satisfactory. The information obtained in this manner has been highly useful in supplementing and confirming data gathered from the other sources and by the other methods enumerated here. (The most productive of all methods).

A number of Keith descendants became very interested, highly active and extremely helpful in this Keith Family History project. They voluntarily researched in scores of libraries, court houses, archives, cemeteries and other areas where Keith information might be found. And they wrote dozens of letters, made many phone calls, traveled miles, visited relatives and others for interviews and otherwise expended much of their time, effort and other resources to advance this Work. Without their great help and excellent cooperation Keith Kinfolks would be far less complete. The Author recognizes the value of and sincerely appreciates their contributions of information, documents and other material along with their suggestions, advice and wonderful words of encouragement. Recognition and credit are given these good people in their biographies contained in the narrative.

Published works shown in the Bibliography were used extensively and contributed much information to Keith Kinfolks. Special recognition is due Publications 2, 3, 5, 7, 15, 18, 20, 24, 26, 27 and 32. When required by Copyright, permission to use material was obtained from the authors. Unpublished papers and other material are not listed in the Bibliography but are included in the records named in this discussion.

The Writer and wife researched in court houses, libraries, archives and cemeteries in several states. We interviewed widely scattered relatives and others having knowledge of subject Keith Family. In addition to preparing and mailing the previously named family history questionnaires, about 3,000 individual (not form) letters were written seeking help, Keith information and verification of data previously acquired. And we performed the many other miscellaneous and varied tasks necessary to obtain and authenticate information for this Work.

Several professional genealogists and researchers were employed to uncover information not found or available through other methods and to verify information obtained from other sources. They contributed much of value to the effort.

Over 1,000 photographs were loaned to be considered for this Book. The 182 included in the narrative (showing 685 individuals) are not necessarily the best in quality, but rather were selected because they will be of the greatest value and most interest to the maximum possible number of descendants in future generations.

It is not considered worthwhile nor practical to record all information gathered on James Keith, Sr. descendants. To include verbatum (or make repeated references to) all the data and each of the many records, newspaper items, old letters, family legends and anecdotes, etc. obtained would require much more space than provided by this one volumn without adding to the real value of the Work. Accordingly, a record of carefully selected facts contained in material from all the sources utilized is deemed sufficient. The Book then is a summarization of the most pertinent information obtained from the six general sources by the six general methods detailed above.

As indicated by the 16,500 name entries shown in the Index, the above outlined procedures for finding and obtaining information on James Keith, Sr. descendants has proven fruitful.

INFORMATION RECORDED AND FORMAT

Each person recorded in Keith Kinfolks is a proven descendant of James Keith, Sr. or the spouse of a proven descendant. The Book records all essential facts on these descendants and the spouse of those married. This information is contained in 2,715 descendant family biographies arranged by generations and; in as far as possible; birthdates in the generations. These biographical sketches vary in length from very brief to fairly detailed; depending on pertinent facts known.

Biographies are dedicated mainly to all descendants having children. A few are devoted to those who (a) gave their life in the service of their country, (b) were prominent in their fields of endeavor and highly successful in their undertakings, (c) gained high honors in any area, (d) overcame seemingly insurmountable handicaps, (e) are of potential interest to future generations, (f) made outstanding contributions to this Keith Family History effort, and (g) all descendants falling in the Eleventh (last) Generation.

Data shown in the biographies include descendant's (a) generation from James Keith, Sr., (b) order of birth in the generation, (c) name, (d) parent's name — Keith descendant parent always given first, (e) Keith ancestry by reference, (f) birth place and date, (g) death date, place and burial site, (h) name of spouse and marriage date and place, (i) names of children, and (j) other descendants by reference. When known the biographies are expanded to include education; occupation or profession; church, fraternal and political affiliation; charity and community activities; military service; awards and honors won; distinguished achievements; noteworthy contributions to society; special talents; hobbies; occasional anecdotes and legends; and last known area of residence. Additionally, in many instances the non-Keith ancestry of the desendant or spouse is shown; extending back in time to include fifteen generations for some. Information on the spouse of a descendant, and children not qualifying for a biography, is also given in the descendant's history.

Chapters in the Book are titled First Generation, Second Generation, Third Generation, etc. through the Eleventh (last) Generation. The first Keith generation (James Keith, Sr.) is recorded in the First Generation Chapter. His children (second Keith generation) are introduced in his biography in the First Generation Chapter and when qualified for a biography of their own as specified above, are recorded in the Second Generation Chapter. In the Second Generation Chapter the second generation's children (third Keith generation) are introduced, assigned a biography when qualified, and recorded in the Third Generation Chapter in numerical order. This procedure is repeated until all descendants are recorded through the eleven generation chapters.

ABBREVIATIONS AND SYMBOLS

In order to include all possible relevant data in the limited space allowed for this Work, the smallest acceptable type size and extensive use of abbreviations and symbols is a necessity. The following outline gives most of those used and their meanings. Abbreviations and symbols with obvious meanings are not listed here.

1. The letter g is the abbreviation for great; gc means grandchild; gc/o grandchild (or grandchildren) of; gf grandfather; gm grandmother; d/o daughter of; s/o son of; gd/o granddaughter of; gp grandparents; gs/o grandson of; g gd/o great granddaugther of, etc.

2. Two CAPITAL LETTER Postal Service symbols for states are used in addresses. Example: TN means Tennessee. Av is avenue; Cem is cemetery; Com is community; Co. is county; Hwy is highway; Ln lane; Rd road; Rt route; RR rural route; SR star route; and St. is street.

3. One CAPITAL LETTER symbols have the following meanings; B for born or birth; B&D born and died; C child or children; D died or deceased; DIF died in infancy; L lived/lives in-at-on; M married; 1M first married(marriage); 2M second married, etc.

4. Other CAPITAL LETTERS are used to designate events, names, organizations, etc. Some of the most common are: BPOE Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks; CSA Confederate States of America; CW Civil War; DAR National Society Daughters of American Revolution; IOOF Independent Order of Odd Fellows; KC Knights of Columbus; OES Order of Eastern Star; Order of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons is shortened to Masons; PTA Parent-Teachers Association; VFW Veterans of Foreign Wars; WW I World War One; WW II World War Two; and WOW Woodmen of the World.

5. College Degree abbreviations used are the same as given in Webster International, Unabridged, Dictionary except periods and spaces are omitted. Example: B.S.A., Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, is shortened to BSA. Col is for college and U for university.

6. Months of the year, except May, have three letter abbreviations; such as Feb, Mar, Jun, Aug and Dec. Dates contain no spaces, commas and periods. The day of the month is given first, the three letter month abbreviation next and the year last. Examples: December 31, 1897 is shortened to 31Dec1897 and January 15, 1975 appears as 15Jan1975.

7. When an individual was/is known by other than their first given name, that name is underscored to indicate this fact. Example: Mary Inez Smith was/is known by her middle name Inez. When an individual was/is known by a nickname, that nickname is recorded in "quotation marks". Example: Charles William "Jack" Jones was/is known by the nickname "Jack".

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

Readers should review this, the other introductory sections and the Index before using this Book.

The system discussed below makes it easy to locate the record of any person recorded in the narrative and trace all their ancestors and descendants with only one reference to the Index. This is accomplished by pinpointing the exact paragraphs where the desired information is given; not just the page numbers as do most systems.

Descendants assigned a biography, as previously discussed, are given a two part identifying descendant number with the parts separated by a dash. The digit (or digits) to the left of the dash signify descendant's generation from James Keith, Sr. and the digits to the right of the dash gives order of birth in the generation. Thus Number 8-415 Edward Eugene "Edd" Keith is an eighth generation Keith descendant and, according to his birthdate of 18Jun1933, is the four hundred fifteenth descendant in that generation. Likewise, Number 11-19 Joshua Devere Hill is the nineteenth descendant recorded in the eleventh generation.

As indicated before; descendant biographies appear in the Book in numerical order. Examples: Descendants with generation number 3 (no. left of dash) appear in numerical order (no. right of dash) in the Third Generation Chapter of the Book; fourth generation (no. 4 left of dash) appear in numerical order (no. right of dash) in Fourth Generation Chapter, etc.

Throughout the narrative and in the Index the reader is referred to descendants and their spouse by number and name only because page numbers are not necessary. To find the record of a descendant, spouse or others; first locate their name in the Index. The Index entry for the individual will give the biography number where information on that person is recorded. The digits in their two part number to the left of the dash specifies chapter (generation) and the digits to the right of the dash tells biography number in the chapter. Example: Number 6-317 Henry Pinkney "Pink" Cole is the three hundred seventeenth descendant recorded in the Sixth Generation.

All biographies make reference to the descendant's parents, children and occasionally to other relatives. This is always accomplished by giving the biography number (never page number) where information on the parents, children and other relatives can be found. Example: Number 6-360 Leah Lenora McGaughey makes reference to her parents Number 5-121 Etta Sutphin/John Alexander McGaughey and to her son Number 7-736 John Orville Rand. Readers interested in learning more about these parents and son will turn to the Fifth Generation Chapter and one hundred twenty first biography in that chapter and to the seven hundred thirty sixth biography in the Seventh Generation Chapter.

To learn the Keith ancestry of a descendant, first find that descendant's biography number in the Index. Then turn to the specified generation chapter and biography number in the chapter. This biography will give or refer to the descendant parent, the descendant parent's biography will refer back to the grandparent's biography, the grandparent's biography back to the great grandparents, etc. until the ancestry is traced back to James Keith, Sr.

To learn the descendants of an individual, first consult the Index for their biography number and refer to that biography in the narrative. This biography will give children's names and refer to their biographies. These childrens biographies will introduce grandchildren and refer to their biographies where great grandchildren are named and biographies specified, etc. thru all generations of descendants.

GENESIS AND GENERAL HISTORY OF THE KEITHS

The Keiths are descendants of an ancient warlike people of Germany in the country of Hesse. They were known as the Chattie or Cattie. They resisted the Roman Conquest until finally the overpowering legions of Augustus Caesar defeated them. A part of the Chattie submitted to the terms of peace and remained in the country. The rest considered this submission dishonorable and abandoned the country. They went to Batavia (now Holland) and lived there a few years.

The natives of Batavia were afraid of a people they heard were so warlike and whom they observed to be industrious and thriving. Consequently they gave them orders to leave their country and seek one more spacious and less populous.

The Chattie refused to return to Hesse, now possessed by the Romans, but agreed to leave if provided with ships. Being given ships, they set sail about 50 AD with their families and were forced by a storm upon different courses. Some landed at the mouth of the Thames River in England. But the greater number were driven by the tempest to the northern part of Scotland and landed in a country which ever since has been called Chatt-ness or Caithness.

The Scots were alarmed at the arrival of a people trained in war, denied them a share of their country and commanded them to depart. The Chattie refused to leave and defeated the Scots in the battle which followed. They settled over the coast country and increased. Their number and power raised the jealousy and envy of the Scots who marched against them with a great army. The Chattie were driven to Lochaber District of southern Iverness and neighboring mountainous shires where they spread into the famous McIntosh, McPherson and other clans.

The Chattie continued to be a distinct people from the Scots and were governed by their own prince and laws until about 1005 AD. Eventually the Scots observed them to be a just and hard working people and made peace with them.

The Danes had overrun England and were marching on Scotland. At the Battle of Camus Town in 1010 the Danes were defeated. In that battle Robert, Chief of the Chattie, slew the commander of the Danes in personal combat. For that feat King Malcolm II of Scotland bestowed on him several lands, including the Barony of Keith in East Lothian from which he and his descendants assumed their Keith surname. The King also appointed him hereditary Great Marischals of Scotland, which high office continued in the Keith Family until the year 1715 at which time the last Earl engaged in the Jacobite Rebellion and forfeited his estate. The office of Great Marischals had been in the Keith Family for over 700 years.

The seat of the Office was Dunnottar Castle on the Kincardineshire Coast; on an over four acres promontory rising 160 feet and surrounded on three sides by the North Sea. It was reputed to be the strongest fortification in Scotland. During the war with England the Royal Jewels of Scotland were brought there for safekeeping.

In the unsuccessful Jacobite Rebellion the Keith Family took the side of those rebelling against the Government. They were defeated in the Battle of Sheriff Muir (only battle fought). A great many not killed in battle were imprisoned, some were executed, their property confiscated, they were deprived of their titles, some fled to other countries including the American Colonies, others were deported to England and Dunnottar Castle was dismantled. The old castle in ruins continues to be one of the show places of Scotland. Many tales are told of the sacrifices and devotion of its defenders. Readers may wish to consult an encyclopedia for more details on the early Keith Families who occupied Dunnottar Castle for so many years and the high offices held by them.

During research for this Work no evidence was found definitely linking the Keiths recorded in this Book with the first Keiths discussed above. James Keith, Sr., the first recorded and ancestor of those following, arrived in America from North England as a child after the Jacobite Rebellion. It then would be reasonable to conclude that he was a descendant of these ancient Keiths and very possibly was brought to America by fleeing relatives escaping punishment for their parts in the Rebellion.

Many Keiths immigrated to America from the British Isles before, at the time of and after the Jacobite Rebellion. The Keith name is fairly common in the United States. No effort was made to learn about any Keiths except descendants of subject James Keith, Sr. whose history makes up the narrative to this Work.

A study of the Keiths recorded in this Book will show they are typical, or average, Americans. Some occupied/occupy menial jobs while others gained high levels of achievement in business, education, politics, the arts and other fields. Many can be categorized as financially poor and a relatively small number financially wealthy. Humble uneducated toilers and highly trained college presidents, doctors, scientists, etc. are among the descendants of James Keith, Sr. There are agnostics and renowned religious leaders. Nearly all must be classified as sincere, hard working, honest, upright, law abiding, patriotic, God loving people. However undoubtly some loafers, cheats, criminals, malcontents, misfits, troublemakers and other undesireables; found in most families and which genealogical research fails to uncover; bear the Keith name. Again, the Keiths recorded in this Work are average; no better or no worse than other American families.

The Writer will continue to search for the parents, brothers and sisters of James Keith, Sr. and their descendants. When found information will be gathered on them and other Keith family histories will be compiled and published. Readers are urged to contribute any knowledge they now have; or might learn in the future; on these Keiths so additional works can become realities.

FIRST GENERATION

1-1 JAMES KEITH, SR. is the starting point for this Work. Names of his parents, his exact place and date of birth, brothers and sisters marriage date and place, name of wife and arrival date in America were not fully established. The reader is referred to the section in the preceding introductory pages titled "Genesis and General History of the Keiths" for speculation relative to his ancestry.

During research several Keith Family Genealogies; written by subject James Keith, Sr. descendants within the past one hundred years; were studied. They and LDS Church Records show he was born in North England about 1720 and brought to Virginia as an infant by relatives or a guardian. These records further show he first settled in what is now the Frederick/Shenandoah counties area of Virginia at a place called Noride and married as Miss Norid; or similar spelling. One of these genealogies says James Keith, Sr. had a brother Jessie and another says he had a brother Gabriel. A family tradition says he had a brother Reuben for whom he named a son. The fact that this son Reuben named one of his sons Gabriel lends support to the tradition he did have a brother Gabriel Keith.

Several contemporary genealogists and descendants believed James Keith, Sr. could have been brought to Virginia by another James Keith who was his father. This second, older, James Keith is recorded in The Compendium of American Genealogy; edited by Frederick A. Virkus as follows:

> KEITH, James, of Va. (b Peterhead, Aberdeenshire, Scot. Nov. 6, 1696-d Hamilton Parish, Va. 1758; son of Robert), ed. Marischal Coll., Aberdeen, Scot.; wounded in Battle of Sheriff Muir; attainted for attempts to return the Stuarts, 1719, and fled to Va., 1720; settled in Fauquier Co.; later rector St. John's, Henrico Co., 1730-1733; of Hamilton Parish, 1733, et seq.: m 1733 Mary Isham Randolph (b 1718), dau. of Thomas, m 1712 Judith Fleming: and g. dau. of William Randolph (qv).

The gealogists and descendants who support this theory argue Reverend James Keith is right age to be father of subject James Keith, Sr. The date of their arrival in Virginia and the area in which they settled coincides. Because at age thirty-seven years Reverend James Keith married a fifteen year old girl, it seems likely he was married before; even if not so stated in above biography. A study and consideration of his actions after coming to Virginia does suggest he posssibly could have had a son by some woman other than his wife Mary Isham Randolph. Since the subject younger James and his step-mother were about the same age, there could have been discord in the family causing his departure from home while in his teens and thereby becoming lost in as far as records go.

During research many other James Keiths were found. Considerable research effort on the part of amateur family genealogists, professionals and the Writer failed to definitely establish the fact any are the subject James Keith, Sr. However the following two could be likely candidates:

> 1. (a) From Vestry Book, Frederick Co., Va., Page 11: "At a Vestry held for the Parish of Frederick on the 9th day of April 1765 — James Keith present". And "James Keith is appointed to serve as church warden". And (b) Virginia Encyclopedia of Biography, Page 270 says: "Keith, James, was a burgess from Hampshire in the sessions of Nov. 3, 1761, Jan. 14, 1762 and Mar. 30, 1762. In sessions of Nov. 2, 1762 he was absent because he had accepted a clerkship."
> 2. The Bristol Parish (Dinwiddie Co., Va.) Register shows John Keith (born 24 Dec. 1724) and Samuel Keith (born 13 Dec. 1725) as being children of Cornelius and Elizabeth Keith. A James Keith is also shown but his parentage is not given. Since subject James Keith, Sr. named two of his sons John and Samuel; it is possible he is a brother of the Dinwiddie Co. John and Samuel and therefore a son of Cornelius and Elizabeth Keith.

Family legend says James Keith, Sr. was a wanderer and lived in several areas; including Bote-tourt, Bedford and other Virginia counties before finally settling near present day Willis in Montgomery (now Floyd) County just before the Revolutionary War. The post office there prior to Willis was known at one time as Greasy Creek, named for a nearby stream. Land records show sons of James Keith, Sr. later owned considerable acreage bounded by Greasy Creek (see 2-4 Reuben Keith, Sr.).

One Keith descendant who was born and lived his eighty years in almost the exact location as James Keith, Sr. says in a very informative Keith Genealogy which he wrote: "The Pioneers of Floyd County, Virginia were composed of a band of squatters and settlers led by one James Keith who came with his family and made a squatters settlement south of Indian Ridge in Floyd County, Virginia. This settlement was made twelve miles West of the present site of Floyd, Virginia and one mile South of the old turnpike." Another way to give the exact location is to say it is about one miles East of Willis and one mile South of Highway No. 221. In later years it was known as The Keith Settlement. What is presumed to be the old Keith homesite can be found there and the nearby Levi Keith Cemetery; with many old and unmarked graves; is likely the burial place of James Keith, Sr. and his wife Miss Norid. Currently there are a great many descendants of James Keith, Sr. living in Floyd and surrounding counties. And many more are buried in marked graves in several cemeteries of Western Floyd County.

Children of James Keith, Sr./Miss Norid are: (i) 2-1 Samuel, (ii) 2-2 William, (iii) 2-3 John, (iv) 2-4 Reuben, Sr., (v) 2-5 James "Big Jim", Jr., (vi) 2-6 Joshua, and (vii) and (viii) two daughters whose names are unknown and who married brothers named Renfro, Renfrow, etc.

Since data given above is taken from several sources is accord on basic facts, it is concluded the circumstances and information recorded here on subject James Keith, Sr. are essentially correct.

SECOND GENERATION

2-1 SAMUEL KEITH s/o 1-1 James Keith, Sr. B Bedford Co., VA 1758. In his Keith Genealogy No. 7-6 Henry Eden Keith says: "Samuel Keith squatted on what is known as the Burdine Bishop Place (in Montgomery, now Floyd, County, VA). After serving in the War for Independence he sold this place for about $40.00 in barter and moved with his family into North Carolina where he again squatted". Another Keith Genealogy says there was a son John born to subject Samuel Keith and that this son John went to California. Considerable research effort on the part of the Author and others failed to uncover any information on any descendants of Samuel Keith.

2-2 WILLIAM KEITH s/o 1-1 James Keith, Sr. B VA, possibly Bedford Co. C (i) 3-1 Rebecca, (ii) 3-2 Daniel, and (iii) Isom on who no records were found. One Keith genealogist says possibly there were other children, and states further: "William Keith married an Allen and squatted on the place now owned by the Singing Master Jacob Alderman (in present day Western Floyd Co., VA). My g g gm was only a young girl when she often visited this place. There was at this time a house with loop holes all around in it and puncheon doors. There is no doubt but what this house was once used as a sort of fort for protection against Indians. About the year 1790 William Keith moved to the State of Tennessee where little has been heard of him since."

2-3 JOHN KEITH s/o 1-1 James Keith, Sr. B Bedford Co., VA 1764. C (i) 3-1 James "Little Jim", and (ii) John. One Keith Genealogy says: "John Keith squatted on the place near the present site of Harman Mill (in present day Western Floyd Co., VA). He left this place in the year of 1800 and moved to Tennessee."

2-4 REUBEN KEITH, s/o 1-1 James Keith, Sr. was born in 1764 according to U.S. Pension Bureau Records showing his service in the War of 1812 and the Indian Wars. LDS Church Records and several Keith Family genealogies show him to be the son of 1-1 James Keith, Sr. and a Miss Norid, his place of birth as Bedford Co., VA and his birth year the same as given in the Pension Record. Pension Bureau records further show he died in Madison (formerly Buncombe) Co., NC 20Mar1854. He is buried in the Old McIlroy Graveyard near Mars Hill in present day Madison Co.

Montgomery Co., VA Land Records, U.S. Pension Bureau Records, Census Rolls and other papers show subject Reuben Keith, Sr. married Elizabeth Runnion. She was likely the daughter of John Runnion (Runian) and sister of Joseph Runnion as indicated by Buncombe Co. Census Lists. The Runnions were first found on 1788 and 1790 Montgomery Co., VA Tax Rolls; The same records on which Reuben Keith, Sr., his father James Keith, Sr. and brothers William and Samuel are shown. The Runnions later went to Wilkes Co., NC and then to Buncombe Co., NC. Montgomery Co. Land Records, Buncombe Co. Census Rolls, Pension documents and other material show that Reuben Keith, Sr./Elizabeth Runnion lived in these areas at the same time as the Runnions. They were almost next door neighbors in Buncombe Co. These same records suggest that Reuben Keith, Sr./Elizabeth Runnion moved from Montgomery Co. to Wilkes Co., back to Montgomery Co. to dispose of their land and then on to Buncombe Co. where the Runnions had already moved.

Montgomery Co. Land Records named above show five land transactions involving Reuben Keith, Sr./Elizabeth Runnion. One dated 9Feb1793; recorded in Deed Book B, Page 121; and four on 25Mar1793 recorded in Deed Book B, pages 117 thru 120. The first sale was to David Harbour of Montgomery Co. and the other four to George Mabry of Patrick Co., VA. The 9Feb1793 Deed does not specify acreage but does give consideration as "Sum of 80 Pounds current money of Virginia — land in the County of Montgomery between headwaters of Greasy Creek and Indian Creek, waters of New River". The four 25Mar1793 transactions total 1,900 acres for 100 Pounds and were for land "On headwaters of Greasy Creek a branch of New River". All deeds state the Keiths were of Wilkes Co. at time of sale. One witness to the sales was 2-1 Samuel Keith, son of 1-1 James Keith, Sr. and the oldest brother of subject Reuben Keith, Sr. Reuben Keith, Sr. alone signed the first deed and he and his wife Elizabeth signed (by mark) the four dated 25Mar1793. Buncombe Co. Land Records show subject Reuben Keith, Sr./Elizabeth Runnion later acquired considerable acreage in that County.

Keith Family tradition indicates Reuben Keith, Sr./Elizabeth Runnion and their oldest son William, an older Reuben Keith (uncle of younger Reuben Keith, Sr.) with a son Gabriel, and a mulatto slave named Samuel came together as a party to Buncombe Co. in the 1790s after they sold their land in Montgomery Co. Information obtained, studied and considered by the Writer substantiates elements of this tradition.

The actuality of three Reuben Keiths and two Gabriel Keiths (see list of children below) — all closely related and all from Montgomery Co. — coming to and living in Buncombe Co. simultaneously during the first half of the 1800s has proven very confusing to some contemporary Keith descendants, researchers and historians. The fact that two Reuben Keiths of the right age to be father and son came together to Buncombe Co. and were lifelong associates and neighbors leads some to think they were in fact father and son. Also some think Gabriel Keith, son of the older Reuben Keith, could be the father of subject (younger) Reuben Keith, Sr.

A very thorough study and full consideration of all possible available pertinent information convinces the Writer neither of these assumptions are correct.

The subject Buncombe Co. Reuben Keith, Sr. who married Elizabeth Runnion and had the children listed below is also the Montgomery Co. Reuben Keith who records show to be the son of 1-1 James Keith, Sr./Miss Norid of Montgomery Co. The following evidence is offered to support this conclusion: (1) The Montgomery Co. land sold by Reuben Keith Sr./Elizabeth Runnion (witnessed by a son of James Keith, Sr.) is in the same area in which James Keith, Sr. settled before the Revolutionary War and lived until his death. The fact that Reuben Keith, Sr./Elizabeth Runnion owned land and lived near James Keith, Sr.; coupled with the additional fact James Keith, Sr. had a son Reuben; is evidence they are father and son. One Keith descendant who was born and lived eighty years almost within sight of where James Keith, Sr. lived near present day Willis in Montgomery (now Floyd) County, Virginia wrote a fairly detailed Keith Genealogy in which he said: "Reuben Keith, son of James Keith, Sr., squatted on the place which is now in the possession of Jackson Phillips. He removed from this place to North Carolina where he raised a large family". Other named circumstances and records make this combination of facts even more logical. (2) Pension Bureau Records show subject Reuben Keith as Senior and not Junior as would have been the case if he was a son of the older Reuben Keith. Furthermore all records examined show the Reuben Keith who is the son of subject Reuben Keith, Sr. to be Junior and not III as would be the case if subject Reuben Keith, Sr. was in fact the son of the older Reuben Keith. (3) No record was found which suggest in any way that either the older Reuben Keith or Gabriel Keith had a son named Reuben Keith. (4) The birth year given in Pension Records for subject Reuben Keith, Sr. of Buncombe Co. is the same as given by LDS Church Records and Keith genealogies for the Reuben Keith who is known to be the son of 1-1 James Keith, Sr. of Montgomery Co. (5) Elizabeth Runnion, wife of subject Reuben Keith, Sr., came from the same area in Montgomery Co. as did the Reuben Keith who is known to be the son of James Keith, Sr. of Montgomery Co. (6) Reuben Keith, Sr./Elizabeth Runnion names sons William and John, the same as sons of James Keith, Sr. of Montgomery Co.

Children of Reuben Keith, Sr./Elizabeth Runnion are: (i) 3-4 William, (ii) Ann B 1794, (iii) 3-8 John, (iv) Reuben, Jr., (v) Squire, (vi) Gabriel, (vii) 3-15 Louarty, and (viii) 3-17 Thoms Shepherd.

2-5 JAMES "BIG JIM" KEITH, JR. s/o 1-1 James Keith, Sr./Miss Norid. LDS Church Records in Salt Lake City, UT show Mr. Keith as being born in Bedford Co., VA in 1766. He married Margaret Ann "Peggy" Huff 17Apr1793 in Montgomery Co., VA; Samuel Keith (oldest brother) surety. "Peggy" Huff was d/o Samuel Huff and gd/o Francis Huff who most likely came from Germany in the early 1700s and settled in Augusta Co., VA. Family legend says Samuel Huff trailed the last two Indians that roamed the woods of what is now Floyd Co., VA. He scared them so bad that he reported: "Those two Indians will never bother us again".

Home of "Big Jim" Keith/"Peggy" Huff near present day Willis in Floyd Co., VA about 1795.

Children of "Big Jim" Keith/"Peggy" Huff are (i) 3-5 Mary Ann "Polly", (ii) 3-6 Lucindia, (iii) 3-7 Burdine, (iv) 3-11 Guy, (v) 3-12 Braxton, (vi) 3-13 Cyrus L., (vii) 3-14 Elizabeth Jane "Betsy", (viii) 3-16 Sarah, and (ix) 3-18 Greenberry. A Keith genealogy says: "The 'Big Jim' Keith Family lived about nine and one half miles West of Floyd, Va and one fourth mile South of the Hillsville-Roanoke Pike on the place where Mary Poff now lives."

3-2 DANIEL KEITH s/o 2-2 William Keith, B Montgomery (now Floyd) Co., VA in 1784, D Edmonson Co., KY at about age ninety-nine years. Details of his marriage to Judy Cannady are unknown. Since it is known families bearing this surname lived in the area in which Mr. Keith was born and reared, and very old headstones marking Cannady graves were observed there, it is believed she too was born and reared near present day Willis in Floyd Co. Mr. and Mrs. Keith first went to Wayne Co., KY about 1809 where they lived a short period. They then moved to that part of Grayson Co., KY which became Edmonson Co. in 1825. It was here they lived out their lives and their eight children and a great many of their other descendants were born and lived. Many of their descendants continue to live there. The first seven of their children were born in Grayson Co. The name had been changed to Edmonson when the eighth was born. C (i) 4-2 Susan, (ii) 4-3 Rebecca, (iii) 4-5 William "Billy", (iv) 4-8 John, (v) 4-9 Nancy, (vi) Ollie, B 1822, (vii) 4-12 Nellie, and (viii) 4-16 Isaiah. Mr. Keith was a farmer and banker. Keith began the study of medicine in Tennessee in 1853, attended lectures at Augusta, Georgia in 1858 and 1859 and after graduation commenced practice at Mars Hill, NC. After the CW Dr. Keith moved to Booneville, AR where he continued the practice of medicine, was a merchant, sawmill operator, owner of considerable farmlands, Baptist, Mason. He served in the War with Mexico and during the CW was Lieutenant Colonel assigned to 64th NC Regiment, CSA, stationed at Mars Hill, NC. Since some inhabitants of that area were faithful to the Union and others loyal to the South, Colonel Keith became both a hated and idolized man. He was charged by Unionists of being an overbearing leader of violent troops, responsible for unjust, atrocious and horrible acts; including ordering the execution of thirteen men and rope tieing and horsewhipping several women in one incident. Conversely he was lauded by Southern sympathizers as a liberator, martyr and an intrepid, fearless and highly capable and completely dedicated soldier who protected them from marauders, the Northern Army, bushwhackers, robbers, escaped prisoners of war, draft dodgers and other enemies brought upon them by the War. Publications Nos. 7, 26, and 32 record considerable information on Dr. James A. Keith. (See Bibliography).

The Coles first moved from NC to GA about 1852; soon thereafter to Winston Co., AL where their children were born and reared; and then to Lawrence Co., AL a few years before his death. After Mr. Cole's death some of the family decided to move to Texas. After much pleading by the children and grandchildren, Eleanor "Ellen" Keith Cole reluctantly went with them; which explains why she is buried in Texas and he in Alabama. Mr. Cole was a Baptist minister, Mason, CSA CW cavalry Veteran.

L to R Guy Keith, Captain Benjamin Stephens

4-18 GUY KEITH s/o 3-14 Elizabeth Jane "Betsy" Keith, B 21Sep1828. M Rachel Goad 27Jul1848, Floyd Co., VA. C (i) 5-32 Luanna, (ii) 5-39 Abraham, (iii) 5-45 Isaac, (iv) 5-54 Jacob Guy "Jake", (v) 5-59 Thomas Weeks, (vi) 5-66 Elizabeth Jane, and (vii) 5-71 Mary Savannah. (NOTE: Preceeding data and some information on Guy Keith descendants taken from The Guy Keith Bible).

Guy Keith served as a Virginia Revenue Agent. His duties in this capacity brought him to that part of Nicholas Co., VA (now WV) which became Clay Co. There at the head of Middle Creek, above present day Fola, he discovered and acquired an ideal, isolated and very beautiful home and farm site with a good spring, plenty of grazing land, abundant timber and other necessities. It is said his acreage extended several miles down both sides of Middle Creek. His fourth and fifth generation descendants now own and live on much of this property. Before the birth of their first child the Keiths moved from Floyd Co. to Clay Co. and built their log cabin home. Here their seven children were born and raised and here too is where a great many of their descendants live today — along Middle Creek. Many more descendants are in nearby communities and some have moved to other states. For generations most of his descendants living in Clay and surrounding counties have been coal miners, in coal mine connected occupations, or serving coal mining families.

Records in Department of Archives and History, Charleston WV show: "Guy Keith in Union Army during Civil War -- Clay Co. Militia — Enrolled and Mustered in April 15, 1863 — Mounted Scout — Furnished own horse — Captured January 15, 1864 — Supposed to be dead — Served in Captain Stephenson's Company". One family legend says two strangers in Union Army uniform came to Guy Keith's home and asked to be pioleted through the mountains to Gauley Bridge. Neighbor Ethan Holcomb, Union Army Veteran, was asked by Mr. Keith to accompany them. Soon thereafter Mr. Holcomb was attacked by the soldiers and left unconscious. Guy Keith was never seen again. It was rumored he died in a Confederate Prison, possibly Belle Island; therefore speculation was his captors were Confederate; not Union; soldiers. Much effort by the Writer has failed to uncover a prisoner of war record on Guy Keith. A second family legend says Guy Keith was a Confederate spy; that during the War his actions were mysterious; and he was often absent from home for lengthly periods. And further; he was clever enough to deceive his family, neighbors, the State of West Virginia and the Union Army until the two soldiers knocked on his log cabin home door at the head of Middle Creek.

Rachel Goad Keith's second marriage was to Bozell Williams. Their son Sherman Alexander Williams was B Clay Co. 16May1867. His C are (i) Ernie, (ii) Zenia, M a Cogar, (iii) Homer, (iv) Walter, and (v) Ellen; all who did live, or are now living in Clay Co.

5-1 CYRUS KEITH s/o 4-1 John C. Keith-/Leanna Earls, B Montgomery (now Floyd) Co., VA 25Jul1828, D there 23Oct1911, bur Alderman Cem, Floyd Co. M Rachel Alderman 17Dec1852 in Floyd Co.; she was B 29May1834, D Falling Springs in Greenbrier Co., WV 11Nov1930, bur Walkup Cem near Julia in Greenbrier Co. The following excerpts taken from letter written 1Mar1977 by John Alderman, attorney, Hillsville, VA furnishes some details of the ancestry of Rachel Alderman Keith:

Jacob Alderman, B 1772/1773 was stolen from his home in Germany when a child. He was kept at sea until he left them in 1790 at Wilmington, NC. At that time this was not unusual, as many children were kidnapped and sold as indentured servants.

Upon landing at Wilmington he made his way westward and lived seven or eight years at the Old Salem Settlement (now Winston-Salem, NC). Here he met and married a girl who was a native of Holland but being orphaned at an early age took the name of the family that brought her up, and was known as Rosanna Flannagan, who were Irish.

There they were married and their two older sons John, B 1799, and Jacob, Jr., B 1801, were born. In 1802 they appear in the tax lists of Grayson Co., VA. Their younger children were Phillip, B 1805, George (my gf), B 1808, Elizabeth, B 1811, Frederick, B 1814, and Henry Alderman, B 1816.

Uncle Johnny M early and his oldest son James was B 1818. His sons were James, Jacob, William and Thomas. Thomas is the only one I remember. He died I believe in 1914. The girls were Rachel who M Cyrus Keith, Rosanna who M Levi Keith (see 3-1 James "Little Jim" Keith), Kate who M Joshua Reynolds, and others.

VA State Library Records show: "Cyrus Keith enlisted at Floyd Court House, VA 6Apr1863, in Co. B, 30th Batt., VA Sharp Shooters, for the War. He was mustered into service as a private. On 19Sep1864 he was captured at Winchester, VA and taken to Point Lookout, MD where he was held until 15Mar1865. He was then transferred to Aiken's Landing, VA to be exchanged." A story still being told by Cyrus Keith descendants, 115 years later, relates his homecoming after an absence of over two years while serving as a CSA soldier and Union prisoner of war. He had not been heard from during this time. He walked from point of discharge and arrived home on a beautiful sunshinny day in the Spring of 1865. His two oldest children, Henry and Louiza, were playing in the yard. They saw this ragged, dirty, weary man approaching and speculated as to his identy and reason for his visit. After some staring and talk about who it was and why, Henry started shouting "It's Paw, It's Paw"! This brought Rachel Alderman Keith and children Levi, Leanna and baby Sarah from the house to give Cyrus Keith a most joyous welcome. Surely there has never been a happier homecoming and family reunion in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia.

The family records of 8-241 Reverend Charles Marion Miles gives the following information on subject Daniel Keith. (Other family genealogists give similar accounts).

His Army outfit fought in Kentucky from Louisa to Pikeville, known as Piketon at that time. He was wounded and left on the battlefield when his unit retreated, and a woman who lost her husband in the War took him in and nursed him back to health and he never returned to his home and family. His wife Nancy Alderman had to work as a midwife to support her family. She lived with her grandson and died in 1925. Daniel Keith died in 1898 in Pike County, Kentucky.

Mr. Sutphin's mother could read and write but he obtained very little formal education until he entered Mountain Normal School at Hylton (now Willis), VA. This school prepared him for a teaching career and instilled in him a great desire for more learning, which in turn made him a self made and self educated man. His interests were many and varied. He amassed a large and valuable library, for his time and area, and read widely every subject which might be discussed in learned circles. This from a beginning where his mother cut letters from her Bible, pasted them on wooden paddles and taught her children the alphabet, how to spell and read the Bible; her only book. He kept abreast of his time in current happenings and was a generation ahead of what he expected of science. He predicted at the outset of aviation that there would be great luxury liners in which people would travel, sleep and eat, saying: "they will throw the dishwater out the window". Because of his forward outlook he was considered strange by his contemporaries, and actually tetched when he discussed such subjects as prehistoric man and animals. He taught school thirty-two years in Floyd Co.; was in the merchantile business; postmaster at Duncan, VA; established, named and served as postmaster at Topeco in Floyd Co.; was gauger for a Government distillery in Patrick Co., VA; president of a fire insurance company in Floyd Co.; chairman of the county Republican Party; elected to the Virginia House of Deligates in 1910 and served two terms until 1914. At the urging of his parents who had previously moved to Girard, IL, Mr. and Mrs. Sutphin and their oldest children joined them there in 1895 where he worked in a store. After two years they became homesick for their native Blue Ridge Mountains and returned to Floyd Co. in the Fall of 1897.

Ida Sutphin met "J.M." Brown at a camp meeting and they were married when she was twenty-two. She was a hardy pioneer mother. From Greene Co., TN, where two children were born, they moved westward to West Branch, IA and then still further West by way of Lamar, CO to Eastern WA. There they settled on a 640 acre wheat farm where life was hard during the remaining years of her life. She frequently worked in the fields at harvest time, did the household chores and still found time to raise eleven children. The nearest town was over thirty miles, a day's journey. Only serious injuries and illnesses would justify such trip for medical aid. Most sicknesses and injuries were treated by her with home remedies. The demanding life she lived took its toll and she died at the age of fifty-two years. She was a Methodist. They lived in the Dayton and Riparia area of WA.

Mrs. McGaughey was self-taught, having attended school only two winters. She was a Methodist with very strong religious principles. Her way of life resulted in deep respect and love from her children. Her beliefs helped hold her family close together and gave her children a good set of principles to abide by in their own lives. She was a kind, compassionate mother, but never hesitated to mete out punishment when deserved. Hers was an independent spirit, frugal, resourceful. And she was very proud to be born a Virginian.

Moody, (vii) 7-231 Kerry Albert, (viii) 7-308 Howard Taft, and (ix) 7-341 Edith Virginia. "White Owl Henry" Keith was known for his natural physical aggressiveness. When calm discussions and negotiations failed to settle differences, he preferred fistcuffs. He was not an overly large and strong man, but his overwhelming desire to win, his enjoyment of bare knuckles combat, and experience in settling arguments in this manner made him a highly adept and very formidable opponent who seldom lost a battle. A relative gave an eyewitness account of his last such encounter when over sixty years of age. On "trade day" at Floyd Court House a black man purchased a horse from one of Mr. Keith's grandsons. The grandson soon had second thoughts, concluded he had been taken advantage of and reported the facts to his grandfather, who agreed. When contacted by Mr. Keith the purchaser refused to pay more or return the horse for a refund of the purchase price. A fight between the two ensued in the forenoon on the Court House Square. The first match; witnessed by many; ended in a draw. After periods of rest the second, third and fourth matches; watched by progressively larger crowds; also ended in draws. The fifth bout took place near sundown and lasted almost one hour. "White Owl Henry" Keith won the match, shook hands with his opponent, the black man returned the horse and the grandson refunded the purchase price.

Mr. Lunsford attended Trinity College, now Duke University, and practiced law and other professions. His main interest early in life became Appalachian Mountain folk music, songs, dances, festivals and regional lore. Known as "The Minstrel of the Appalachias" and "The Squire of Turkey Creek" he founded many folk festivals; some nationally known which continue today. His favorite instrument was the five string fretless banjo; also he was a highly skilled fiddler and talented vocalist. He recorded many folk songs; including his own composition Mountain Dew which continues to be popular. His recordings of hundreds of ballads and folk songs for the Library of Congress and the Columbia University Library and his command performances for President Franklin Roosevelt and for King George VI and Queen Elizabeth of England are some of his many credits. The May 1977 issue of North Carolina Folklore Journal, Boone, NC, is devoted to Mr. Lunsford's lifetime efforts and success in promoting and perpetuating Appalachian Mountain folk music, songs, dances, arts and crafts. Also the pamphlet "Bascom Lamar Lunsford - Minstrel of the Appalachians", by Pete Gilpin and George Stephens - The Stephens Press, Asheville, NC tells much more of his life, works and many accomplishments. Publication No. 26 in the Bibliography to this Work gives much more interesting information on Mr. Lunsford and his career.

Dewey Brown spent 43 years as a coal mine motorman with only one minor lost time accident — a very commendable record for such dangerous occupation and hazardous industry. Currently (1979) he has four sons and one son-in-law who are coal mine foremen and several grandsons who are coal miners. He enjoys telling of the old days in coal mining and how different and better it is today. He was interviewed relative to his knowledge of the capture, imprisonment and death of his grandfather 4-18 Guy Keith. He recalls vividly his mother relating the details of this event, some of which are recorded in the narrative pertaining to Guy Keith. He and Mrs. Brown live on Middle Creek above Fola in Clay County, West Virginia where he was born and raised; near his children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren; and close to the old log cabin site which his grandparents (4-18 Guy Keith/Rachel Goad) built when they came from Floyd Co., VA in 1848.

6-321 SAMUEL LUCAS GILBERT s/o 5-84 Laura Frances Kirby/William Sanders Gilbert, B Galena Community of Wythe Co., VA 25Apr1902. M Marie Davis 14Nov1936 at Upper Marlboro, MD. She is d/o the late Gifford and Lydia Davis of Salem, WV. C (i) 7-745 Eunice Ann, and (ii) 7-783 John William. "Sam" Gilbert is a retired salesman. Since retirement he has adopted oil painting as a hobby and taken college courses to improve his knowledge and skill in this art. The first realization of his talent in this field came while attending the old two room elementary school in his neighborhood. The teacher commended him for his illustration of an egg. Because of its realism, the drawing was exhibited before all students. He has now completed many excellent rural, landscape and still life works — some of which are given to relatives and friends. The Writer has received an excellent painting of his great grandfather 4-26 John Daniel Kirby on horseback. One can only wonder to what heights this Keith descendant would have reached in the field of art had his talents been discovered, developed and trained early in life. Mrs. Gilbert is a retired registered nurse. They L 4186 Suitland Rd., Suitland, MD.

C (i) Frances Jane, B 1Dec1942, M a Bozorgmehr, L Yonkers, NY, (ii) 8-679 Deana Faye, and (iii) 8-719 Donald Ray. Mr. Jeffers was a coal mine mechanic, Baptist, Republican, WW II Air Force Veteran. The following Carnegie Hero Fund Commission Record gives details of events leading to his death:

"O. LEONARD JEFFERS, aged thirty, mine mechanic, died attempting to save John E. Carlin, Taylor L. McCausland, and Edwin W. Merchant, Jr., aged thirteen, nine, and eleven respectively, from drowning, Bridgeport, W. Va., January 2, 1953. John, Taylor, and Edwin broke through ice on Hinkle Lake into deep water twenty-five feet from the bank, making a hole twelve feet in diameter. They rose floundering in the hole. Two other boys hailed Jeffers, who was driving along the lake, and told him three boys had fallen through the ice. Jeffers, who was undergoing treatment for a painful back ailment, alighted from his automobile and reached the bank within two minutes after the accident. By that time Taylor and Edwin had disappeared beneath the surface. John was flailing his arms at the edge of the hole. Jeffers, who had not swum for five years and wore heavy clothing, stepped over a low retaining wall at the bank and immediately broke through the ice. He had waded fifteen feet from the bank and with effort swam to John, breaking ice with his hands. Taylor and Edwin had not reappeared. John took hold of the collar of Jeffer's sweater. As Jeffers turned toward the bank, he suddenly sank, John releasing his hold. About a minute later John also submerged. Neither he or Jeffers reappeared. They, Edwin and Taylor were brought to the surface by fireman but could not be revived."

INDEX

This Index lists given and surnames, maiden names, married names of wives, nicknames (in "quotation marks") and names (underscored) of individuals who are known by other than their first given name. The two part numbers are descendant (not page) numbers and refer to the numerically arranged biographies in the narrative where data on the person is recorded. A study of the several discussions contained in the introductory pages will result in a good understanding of the content and arrangement of records, therefore ensure maximum benefits from the Book.
